PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-QSB, or N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Air Industries Group (“Air Industries” or the “Company”), is filing this Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 with respect to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022 (the “Form 10-K”). The Company has determined that it is unable to file its Form 10-K within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense for the reasons set forth below.

Reasons for Delay

The Company determined that it is unable to file the Form 10-K within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense because it requires additional time to complete its financial statement preparation and review process. The Company expects to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K on or before Monday, April 17, 2023, which is within the 15-calendar day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.

Preliminary Financial Results for the Fiscal Year ended December 31, 2022

The Company currently anticipates that its results of operations for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2022 (“Fiscal 2022”) will contain certain significant changes from its results of operations for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 (“Fiscal 2021”). More specifically, the Company believes that its Fiscal 2022 revenues will decrease in comparison to Fiscal 2021 revenues while in Fiscal 2022 it will have a net loss, as compared to net income in Fiscal 2021. The Company is currently finalizing such financial information, and expects to include such final financial information in the Form 10-K that it expects to file on or before Monday, April 17, 2023.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain matters discussed in this Notification are 'forward-looking statements' intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In particular, the Company's statements regarding trends in the marketplace, future revenues, earnings and Adjusted EBITDA, the ability to realize firm backlog and projected backlog, cost cutting measures, potential future results and acquisitions, are examples of such forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, the timing of projects due to variability in size, scope and duration, the inherent discrepancy in actual results from estimates, projections and forecasts made by management, regulatory delays, changes in government funding and budgets, and other factors, including general economic conditions, not within the Company's control. Other important factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the Company's ability to file its Form 10-K within the fifteen-day extension permitted by the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The factors discussed herein and expressed from time to time in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission could cause actual results and developments to be materially different from those expressed in or implied by such statements. The forward-looking statements are made only as of the date of this press release and the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update such forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
